

Witness among the First Gentiles

When the first century historian and doctor Luke wrote of Jesus, he did so after researching many eyewitness and written sources. He compiled an accurate and orderly account not only of the earthly Jesus of Nazareth in a first volume but also of the resurrected Lord Jesus who through his apostles carried the proclamation of God's forgiveness, life and glory from Jerusalem to Rome in a second volume.

The second volume is the text for the Bible Talks this fourth term of 2018. We will follow the first events by which Christianity was taken beyond the Jews into the surrounding nations. It advanced under fierce persecution. The first persecutor was met by the Risen Jesus and became a famous ambassador. A second persecutor of royal stock was met by a sudden death. Under the direction of the Lord Jesus the message of forgiveness and eternal life was unstoppable.
