

An evening with Wendy Richardson, OAM

Renown local playwright and author, Wendy Richardson will perform "Four Kembla Women" on Friday evening March 15th at 7pm at St Johns Anglican Church, Keiraville.

Richardson describes herself:

"I'm a teller of tales. I weave them out of what I hear and observe – some of them are true. I write about ordinary people who never consider themselves courageous or outstanding and who have led such extraordinary lives."

Coffee and dessert will be served.

St Johns Anglican Church
Corner or Moore and Eastern St,
Gwynneville

Ticket price: $15 per person.

Tickets available via trybooking: <https://www.trybooking.com/BAXNF>

All money raised will go to our building fund to build a hall that is safe and provides easy access for everyone.

